H. Walton Ltd Ethical Policy

Policy Statement

H. Walton Ltd was originally established back in the 1920s as Corn, Forage and Provender Millers based at Old Goole Mills, Goole, East Yorkshire.

H. Walton Ltd have built up experience and expertise over the years in the supply of animal feedstuffs delivered by their own fleet of lorries to provide a fast efficient service to all its customers including services to third party haulage and storage and prides itself on specialist knowledge and personal contact.

H. Walton Ltd are members of Sedex company reference ZC412364014/site reference ZS412365187.

The Supplier Ethical Data Exchange (Sedex) was officially launched in 2004. Very simply, it aims to help improve the effectiveness of buying companies' ethical trade strategies by offering a facility for supplier companies to share their audits with multiple customers.

While maintaining these high standards the family run business understands its legal responsibilities with regard to Health & Safety, Employment law & welfare and work closely with the local Authority on all issues relating to moral duty and obligations to the community. All of our employees understand the importance of honesty and behaviour throughout the supply chain to maintain the high standards and reputation of the company.

The business assures compliance to the following principles:-

Legislation, Safety, Security, Traceability & Good Practice

FEED SAFETY IS PARAMOUNT TO THE BUSINESS OF
H. WALTON LTD
